

ArtusGROUP

INVESTIGATIVE SERVICES

ROBERT J. ARTUS

- Rob Artus is the CEO of Artus Group, Inc. He founded the company in 2004 and has been licensed as a private investigator since 1997.
- Artus Group is Connecticut's largest private investigations agency and is a global provider of high-level investigative services. The company maintains websites www.ArtusGroup.com and www.GreenwichPI.com.
- Since forming Artus Group in 2004, Mr. Artus has personally provided investigative services to over 500 different law firms and clients around the world. He has conducted and managed hundreds of fraud cases, and has completed complex due diligence background investigations on over 5,000 individual subjects for attorneys, investors, companies and private equity/financial investment firms. Mr. Artus is a specialist in the techniques of investigative due diligence and litigation investigations.
- Prior to founding Artus Group, Mr. Artus served from December 1997 to August 2004 as Director of Investigations at SSC, Inc., Connecticut's largest privately held security company. He formerly held various corporate senior management positions in the U.S. and United Kingdom.
- Mr. Artus is a co-founder and current Chairman of the Connecticut Private Investigators Association; is a former director of the Connecticut Association of Licensed Private Investigators; is an active member of the Council of International Investigators; and is an active member of Intellenet – a worldwide association of security and investigative professionals.
- Mr. Artus has testified in court and provided depositions related to his work on numerous occasions, and is a regular presenter at industry events and conferences.
- Mr. Artus has been affiliated with the Life Solutions Center of Darien since 2010 and in 2017 was featured as the investigative specialist in the Single Process video series regarding the divorce process.
- Mr. Artus is the author of the Connecticut Private Investigator Blog at www.ConnecticutPIblog.com. He has been quoted as an investigative expert in the Connecticut Law Tribune and in numerous Connecticut newspapers, publications and periodicals.
- Mr. Artus grew up in the United Kingdom and was educated in London. He has resided in Connecticut since 1988 and became a US citizen in 2004.